2024

Pride Month originated in the United States, in 1969, when the Stonewall riots took place in June of that year (the Stonewall riots being protests that changed gay rights for a lot of people in America and around the world).

In celebration of Pride Month and the LGBTQ+ community, the Annapolis Pride Parade & Festival was created.

Planning is under way to host the Annapolis Pride Parade & Festival for 2024.

June 1, 2024

Since the first Festival & Parade in 2019, the Annapolis Pride's event has become the second largest in Annapolis, with over 6,000 people in attendance.

- Annapolis Pride's Parade and Festival has been voted the best outside of Washington THREE times by the Washington Blade.
- Annapolis Pride is committed to supporting the LGBTQ+ community by using its resources to aid in the advancement and education of our community, lawmakers and public institutions around issues of diversity, equity, inclusion, and social justice.
- We aim to showcase Annapolis as a premier destination, safe and equitable for all.
- Annapolis Pride's website has reached 118,000+ unique visitors and 282,000+ visits and we expect to increase that in 2024.
